Our Board of Directors voted to give Gail Spear the Volunteer of the Year award for 2016, and she was presented with this award at our December 19th Dance at Gulfport Casino Ballroom.

Gail is Board Vice President, Membership Chair, in charge of our Facebook page, and was Outreach Coordinator for several years as well as dancing in Outreach Programs with husband Richard and other partners.

She organized many celebrations of National Ballroom Dance Week and often brought her Line Dancers to perform with the Ballroom dancers.

Gail and Richard have been regular attendees at our monthly dances, entertaining us with creative costumes at Halloween!

They have also danced in shows, and Gail has taught Line Dancing for the group classes.

She is now the Deejay for Outreach Programs when Wayne Meier is not available.

Gail has been a Board Member since 2008, and is so deserving of this award.

It’s time to plan our Volunteer Party at 1st Dance Studio on Sat, March 4th. We reward all 2016 volunteers with free admission and a sub sandwich buffet which includes fruit and desserts.

Deejay Sam plays music 7-10pm, and everyone is welcome, with guests paying $7 admission.

It’s not too late to volunteer your time and be eligible to attend this party! I need help contacting the volunteers for sandwich orders, and arranging schedules for the ladies who will dance with a Pro Host. You could also bring $25 worth of fresh fruit or a dessert.

Everyone who brings supplies, snacks, fruit to our monthly dances, helps to set up, staffs the Front Desk, takes photos, folds Tempos for mailing, dances in Outreach Programs, serves on the Board or a Committee is eligible to attend the Volunteer Party.

Many thanks to Sara Frederick for replacing Donna Draper on the Telephone Tree. Donna is living with her daughter in W. Palm Beach due to health issues, so she has had to resign from our Board of Directors, also.

Donna enjoyed her 12 years as a Board Member, and was always a big help at the Gulfport Casino Ballroom when we held competitions there. Thank you, Donna – we really appreciate your 12 years of service!

November Dance
By Nancy Welch    Photos by Victoria Baker

Our post Thanksgiving Dance was held on November 28th, and we welcomed RICHARD & LAURIE COLLETT for another amazing show of Theater Arts! To the song “Embracable You”, they performed an American Theater Arts Foxtrot. After a costume change, they returned for a Theater Arts performance of the deeply moving song from Les Miserables, “Bring him home”. Just breathtaking!

RICHARD & LAURIE are owners of RHAPSODY BALLROOM in Tampa and have made many contributions to the Ballroom Dance Community. Fortunately for us, they love performing and give us a wonderful show every year at our November Dance!

We were also delighted to welcome RICHARD & MARIE ROBERTS for a great show dance of Hustle. MARIE also taught a group class in Hustle. They both formerly taught at Bayou Dance Club for several years, but a serious back injury kept RICHARD from dancing for 18 months. He recently returned to dancing and can be reached for private lessons at 727-459-4800. MARIE can be reached at 727-459-5599.

Many thanks to all of you for entertaining us! Thanks, also, to VICTORIA BAKER & LEE DAIGLE for the generous bowls of fresh fruit, and to Victoria for these great photos. Congratulations to Suncoast Chapter member BOB KOMPINSKI who won the 50/50 raffle.

We welcomed TIM TETRAULT as our 5th Pro Host! Tim recently retired from teaching at Bayou Dance Club to become an Uber driver.

NEWS FROM THE
ADVENTURE COAST CHAPTER
Formerly PASCO CHAPTER
by Robbie Cash, President  727-207-8077

Pasco Chapter 6090 has good news and GREAT news. We are changing our name to ADVENTURE COAST. We decided to give Pasco a break and moved to Spring Hill. Our dance is the 2ND THURSDAY of the month, 6:30-9:30pm, at Lake House, 1202 Kenlake, Spring Hill. Pete Berna is our Deejay. He plays fabulous music with a new variety and includes a dance lesson each month.

He and his wife, Christiine, have been dancers for many years. We are lucky to have them on our Board! Carol Makris is also a Board Member and has been very helpful with information, our meet and greet, and telephone calling tree. Don Wright was moved into the Vice President position while I have remained as President. Hope to see you out dancing soon.
Another first at this dance was having a Female Pro Host to dance with the guys! Marie Roberts, who gave the group class at our November Dance, returned in December as a Pro Host. She will be back again for our February Dance and is pictured above with our Male Pro Hosts. Luigi had to miss our December Dance due to an injury, but he will be back for our January Dance.

Our Board of Directors voted to give Gail Spear the 2016 Volunteer of the Year award, and she was presented with this award at our Dec 19th Dance. You can read about Gail’s many contributions in my President’s message. Give her a big thank you when you see her!

Essie Lutes was given a Certificate of Appreciation for her three years of service as a Board Member. She has also been arriving early at our monthly dances to set up the Snack Table, and I am very grateful for her help.
DECEMBER HOLIDAY BALL
By Nancy Welch  Photos by Ed Zuranski, W.T. Bueneman

What a great time we all had at our December 19th Holiday Ball! Arleene Norman taught a group class in Swing, and brought her sister Coco Gregoria and Joe Huhnsman to perform Shim Sham in the show. Suncoast Chapter member Balsam Fanous joined them for the Shim Sham. Arleene also gave us a lively Lindy Hop with David Toop.

Between those two numbers, a first time performance of Belly Dancing was given by Arielle Giordano, a talented lady who teaches Flamenco, Belly Dancing, beginner Ballroom, and Essentrics/Aging Backwards. This program reverses atrophied muscles by stretching, lengthening, and strengthening 650 muscles. She has even written a book: “Dancing with your story from the inside out”. For more information, visit her website: www.dancingfromtheinsideout.com. You can also phone her at 813-545-7173. Ballroom class Mondays, 5:15-6:15pm at Hale Senior Activity Center in Dunedin. Call 727-793-2320 to register.

Arleene holds Swing Class/Dances at Dancers Co-op on the 2nd, 3rd, & 4th Saturdays of the month, and a Ballroom Dance at the Dunedin Hale Center on the 2nd Monday. In December, she held a Swing Dance Fundraiser to benefit Toys for Tots at the Ft Harrison Hotel in Clearwater. She will hold two more Charity Fundraisers there on February 23rd and March 23rd.

Many thanks to photographers Ed Zuranski and W.T. Bueneman, to first time Fruit Volunteer Judy Polk for a generous bowl of fresh fruit, and to Susie Howell for her donations to the Snack Table. Congratulations to Suncoast Chapter member Joseph Roman who won the 50/50 raffle.

Virginia Hokes has been helping at the Front Desk, checking in ladies who dance with the Pro Hosts. She is pictured on the opposite page with new Board member LaNona Robinson and recently retired Board member Essie Lutes.

Hal Dickey, who died in November, loved living here in Dancer’s Paradise where he could dance three times a day if he wanted to!

He tried out all the ballrooms and studios in the Tampa Bay area, including other USA Dance Chapter dances within driving distance. He is pictured here with Gaile Kimpel.

He was involved with professional photography his entire life, and gladly donated his services to our Suncoast Chapter when we needed him.

His ballroom dancing began in Kansas City after he met a student teacher and took lessons with her for a year. He was instrumental in starting a USA Dance chapter there, serving as Vice President, then President.

Herb McCarter, who gave so much of his time and his resources to the Dance Community that he cared so much about, died January 4th. Herb was a lovable, compassionate man with a sunny, contagious smile who not only volunteered time to his own chapter, but he and Jean Enders Thomas helped found the Pasco Chapter. He drove to Pasco from W. Palm Beach to play music at Elfers Center dances, and danced with all the ladies!

When Sam Moses took over Deejay duties for our Suncoast Chapter, there were many phone calls to Herb at all hours! When Herb drove here to attend dances, he would also spend hours helping Sam record music.

Herb loved life, family, and friends, and will be profoundly missed by all who knew him.
